When God created the world, he must have spent a little extra time on Autumn!

Of all the people in the world, lovers of God ought to be the most captivated by what he's made — shouldn't we?

Does anything God has made make us feel like God feels about it all?

The God we worship is a creative and creating God. We're literally surrounded with the work of His hands.

Not only that, but, when the Father looks out over the goodness of creation, at the center of it all, He sees His Son. He's the beauty in every beauty,... the sun dawning on the darkness around us, the crucified, risen, reigning —creating and sustaining —Jesus. So whenever we enjoy and use creation rightly, it will surely lead us to Him.
